

'Inclusive Sport and Physical Activity' Workshop

Get Active Queensland Accreditation Program

25 September 2017

This workshop is for anyone interested or involved in the provision of sporting opportunities that include people with a disability as players, volunteers, coaches, officials or administrators.

Explore the inclusion of people of all abilities, including people with disabilities, in sport and physical activity programs during a FREE one-day workshop for teachers, teacher aides, tertiary and senior secondary students, school sport volunteers, after-school activity deliverers, disability services staff and community sports members.

Participants will:

- Explore attitudes to disability
- Identify 'disadvantage' in a sport or physical activity setting and examine a model to overcome it
- Learn how to adapt and modify sport and physical activities to include people of all abilities in a practical session
- Understand disability sport pathways and classification of athletes for competition
- Participate in a disability sport session
